NEWSLETTER NUMBER 2 OF 1990

21st. March

VIIth. WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Please note that the rules for the championships will have the following changes:

Tul will not be judged as previously with 1 to 1 competing, but will revert to the previous rules, for team and individual. This means that the judges will score the Tul on judges' papers and the people with the highest scores will win. This is laid out in the encyclopaedia and condensed manual.

CHEAPER AIRFARES

Mr. Tran Trieu Quan has informed us that he may be able to arrange cheaper airfares for some Third World countries where they want to send only one or two competitors. Please write to Mr. Trieu Quan TRAN, Executive President, Organizing Committee, VIIth. World Championships, 2773 Chemin St. Louis, Ste. Foy, Quebec G1W 1P1, CANADA.

UMPIRE COURSE

There will be an international umpire course, in Canada, commencing 15th. August. Any 4th. degree or over may participate in this course with a view to becoming qualified as an international umpire class 'A'. You must have a class 'B' umpire certificate which can be got through your National Association. Your hotel will be paid for the days of the course and should you qualify and be selected for the Championships then your hotel would also be paid for the days of the event. Any, existing, class 'A' umpires may apply to officiate at the championships but note that you must attend the umpire course in Canada. Your hotel will be paid as above but note that anyone who wishes to officiate at the event must not do other things during the event, such as being a team coach or involved with teams in any way. You will be expected to officiate as directed by the Chief Umpire and anyone who breaches the rules, or is not available as directed, will have to pay for all of his accomodation, including the days of the course.

ELIGIBILITY

To be able to represent a national organization at the championships when your passport is not from that country, then a person must have been resident in that country for 1 year or more prior to the event. In case your eligibility is disputed then you must be able to prove residency in the country for 1 year or more before the event.

BRD TOURNAMENT

There will be an international team tournament in Unna, West Germany, on May 19th. 1990 commencing at 19.00 hours. Teams from BRD, Greece, Netherlands, and Yugoslavia will compete. Enquiries to Mr. Paul WEILER, Malvenweg 27, 5 Koln 80, BRD or phone (221)639518.

3rd. PANAM CHAMPIONSHIPS

These will be held in the Republica Dominicana. Full details will be given when known.
